

Senate Bill No. 626

CHAPTER 937

An act to amend Sections 12020 and 12280 of the Penal Code, relating to weapons.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 2001. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 2001.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 626, Perata. Weapons.

Existing law, except as provided, generally prohibits the manufacturing, causing to be manufactured, importation into the state, keeping, offering or exposing for sale, giving, or lending of various weapons, including any large-capacity magazine. Existing law also defines "large-capacity magazine" and specifies certain magazines that are not included within the definition.

This bill would exempt the manufacture of a large-capacity magazine for certain law enforcement agents, peace officers, government agencies, the military, or for export. The bill would also exempt certain purchases and loans of large-capacity magazines, as specified. This bill would, in addition, specify additional magazines that are not included within the definition of "large-capacity magazine."

Existing law makes it an offense, with specified exceptions, to possess an assault weapon, as defined.

This bill would provide additional exceptions to the offense of possessing an assault weapon, regarding the loan at a target range of an assault weapon by a retired peace officer, as specified, and receipt and possession of an assault weapon by certain peace officers, if those officers register the assault weapon, as specified.

By imposing additional duties on local law enforcement agencies, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement, including the creation of a State Mandates Claims Fund to pay the costs of mandates that do not exceed $1,000,000 statewide and other procedures for claims whose statewide costs exceed $1,000,000.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12020 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
